

HURRAH
FOR THE LAND WE LOVE!

Air : A Life on the Ocean Wave.

Hurrah for the land we love !
Hurrah for the laws we keep !
Our Banner we've nailed above,
And our Faith is anchored deep !
Let the trembling knave betray,
Let the paltry changeling fly,
There will come an answering day :
For, our Cause can never die.
Then, hurrah for the land we love !
And hurrah for the laws we keep !
Our Banner is nailed above,
And our Faith is anchored deep !

A lesson the traitors teach,
And a lesson the cowards give ;
'Tis easy the Right to preach,
But 't is harder the Right to live !
We laugh at the weak-kneed crew
Who shiver on Faction's shore ;
But with Brothers yet firm and true,
We'll meet Disunion's roar.
Then, hurrah for the land we love !
And hurrah for the laws we keep !
Our Banner is nailed above,
And our Faith is anchored deep !
